Indigo Online Course Registration and Login Instructions (manual)

To get started, go to: https://www.indigocourses.com/register

Once here, create an account providing your information and entering the code you were given from your school.

After clicking on “Create my new account” you will be redirected to this page, which displays the username and password you created. I highly recommend you write this down for future reference.
Within the above message is a hyperlink to get to the main page you can use those credentials to login in the top right of the screen.

For all future returns to the course, you can get directly to this login page by using the URL https://www.indigocourses.com/login/